

Old Post Cottage

Data policy

We collect information from you under the Data Protection Act 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which applied from 25 May 2018.

Any personally identifiable information that we collect is held securely and used solely for the purposes of booking and managing your holiday and maintaining our own financial and management records. We do not share, sell or rent your information to any other person, company or organisation.

We do not use your information to market any services to you including our own cottage. If you would like us to keep you updated about offers, availability and Old Post Cottage news, however, please email rich@oldpostcottage.com specifically requesting such communications.

By disclosing personal information to us you consent to the collection, storage and processing of information in the manner described in this document. Our website contains links to other websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of the owners and operators of these sites. We therefore recommend you read the privacy statements and policies on each site to which you are asked to submit personal information.

You have the right to ask us to remove any information we hold about you.
